

Online Marketing Manager (f/m/d)

in the field 3D Software/Render farm

Permanent Position | Full Time or Part Time | Remote

The RebusFarm Render Service is one of the leading render farms, that enable the direct calculation of 3D animations and high-resolution frames via an in-house data center. Our customers include architects, 3D studios, freelancers, artists, production companies and companies in the advertising industry. For more information about our service, have a look at our website: www.rebusfarm.net.

Your Tasks

- Participation in the conception and implementation of all marketing campaigns
- Independent work in the operational day-to-day business
- Correspondence with international partners and customers
- Supervision of the company's own competitions
- Website content management
- SEO implementation and monitoring
- Ad creation, implementation and monitoring
- E-Mail Marketing
- Continuous analysis of ongoing campaigns

Your Profile

- Completed studies or training with a focus on online marketing
- Several years of professional experience in online marketing
- Very good English skills (written and spoken)
- Creativity and quick comprehension
- Basic Photoshop or Illustrator skills to create/edit creatives and small banners
- Independent way of working
- SEO, SEA, Facebook Ads, Google Analytics knowledge is advantageous

What we offer

- Interesting tasks with creative possibilities and future perspectives
- An open, international and friendly team
- Flexible work location
- Individual development support through training, seminars, studies as desired

If you want to join our team, please send your application with your salary expectation and earliest possible starting date to Sabina Roeloffs: roeloffs@rebusfarm.net.