

Social Media Manager (f/m/d)

in the field 3D Software/Render farm

Permanent Position | Full Time | Remote

The RebusFarm Render Service is one of the leading render farms, that enable the direct calculation of 3D animations and high-resolution frames via an in-house data center. Our customers include architects, 3D studios, artists, production companies and companies in the advertising industry. For more information about our service, have a look at our website: www.rebusfarm.net.

Your Tasks

- Development of social media strategies
- Social monitoring and engagement
- Developing content formats and implementing them
- Creating and working with editorial plans
- Creating postings (idea, caption, creative)
- Social media analysis
- Participation in the conception and implementation of all marketing campaigns
- Correspondence with international partners and customers

Your Profile

- Completed studies or training with a focus on online marketing
- Several years of professional experience in social media management
- Very good English skills (written and spoken)
- Creativity and quick comprehension
- Photoshop or Illustrator skills to create/edit creatives
- Independent way of working
- Facebook Ads, Google Analytics knowledge is advantageous

What we offer

- Interesting tasks with creative possibilities and future perspectives
- An open, international and friendly team
- Flexible work location
- Individual development support through training, seminars, studies as desired

If you want to join our team, please send your application with your salary expectation and earliest possible starting date to Sabina Roeloffs: roeloffs@rebusfarm.net.